Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

Foreword

Here today--gone tomorrow--so quickly have the days slipped by at Kelly High. Lest the wonderful experiences of this year, 1958-1959, should be lost, we have tried to recapture the delights of these days in this parade of events which contains the high lights of a rich school life well lived.

Dedication

Dear Mother and Dad,
We proudly dedicate
the Hi-Lites of '59 to you, Mother and Dad, because of your untiring love, generous sacrifices, and words of encouragement.

May this volume of the Hi-Lites recall often to your minds the spirit and traditions of Kelly High School which you have helped inspire.

"Book worms." Daryl, Robert, Janice and JoAnn are finding the answers.

Future stenographers, Virginia and Betty, take dictation from Marilyn.

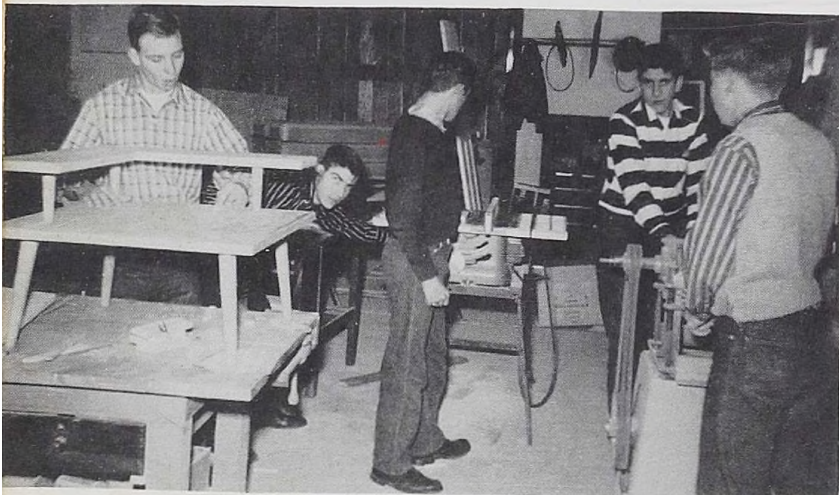

"Pay early and save"-- Mr. Hegarty's timely warning to Bernard in bookkeeping class.

Still achieving, Learn to labor

"I found it first." --- Students in American history go globe trotting.

Daryl carefully sands an end table. The other boys use the machines.

The situation in Latin America interests the world history students.

Virginia approves Betty's prom dress. Arlene and Marilyn are intent on machine work.

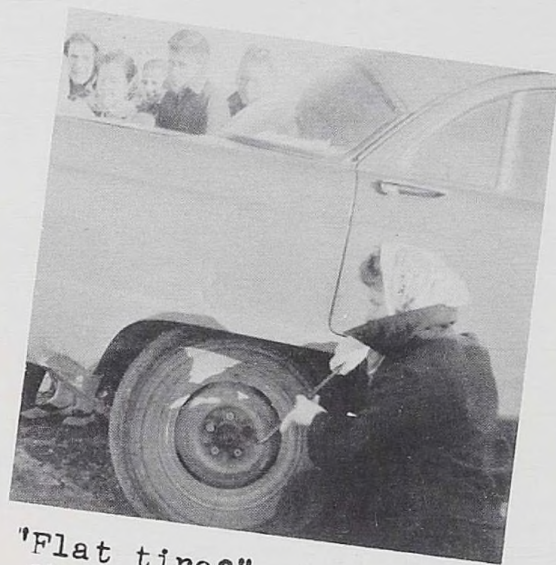

*still pursuing,
and to wait.*

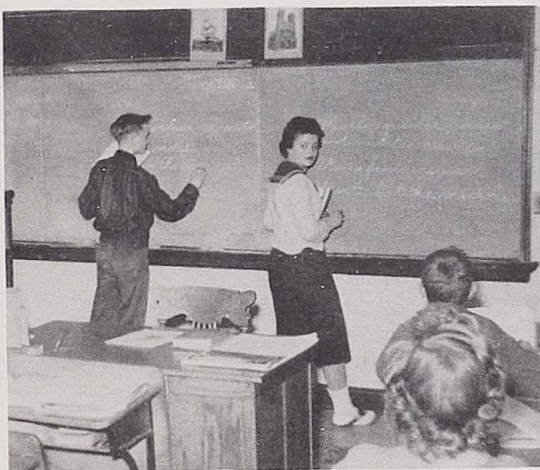

"Something cooking?" Judy, Janice, Ruth and Lois try out some new equipment in the food's lab.

Time is fleeting--so are the typists at Kelly High.

"Flat tire?" Call on Sharon's tire service.

Lambert and Dolores find that Latin translations are hard.

There is satisfaction in a job well done, decide Francis, Bernard and Ronald.

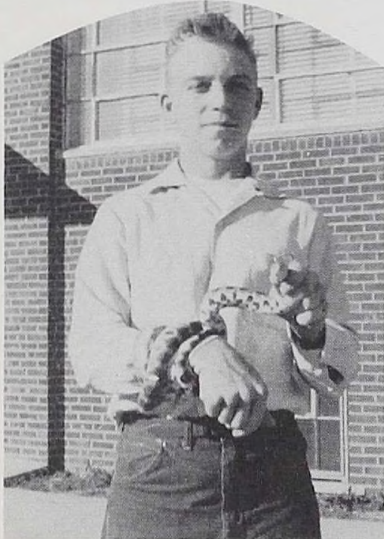

"Spartanettes" in action.

Cheerleaders: D. Hermesch
B. Rottinghaus, K. Hulsing
M. C. Bowhay.

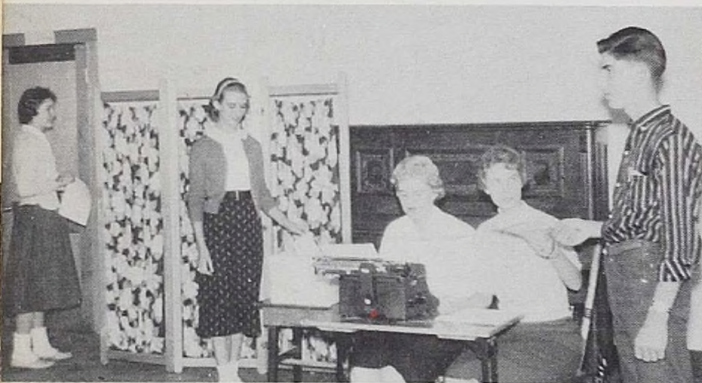

Daryl Huerter's snake
